

LEGACY of HOPE

DENTON COUNTY FRIENDS OF THE FAMILY

Leave a Legacy of Hope, Healing, and Safety

Your legacy gift helps ensure that survivors of domestic violence and sexual assault in Denton County receive the shelter, counseling, legal advocacy, and support they need, today and for generations to come. When you include DCFOF in your estate plans, you become part of a powerful mission to end abuse and create lasting change in our community.

Ways to Give

Choose the legacy gift that works best for you:

1. Bequest in a Will or Trust

Designate a specific dollar amount, percentage, or remainder of your estate to DCFOF.

2. Beneficiary Designations

Name DCFOF as a beneficiary of your:

- Life insurance policy
- IRA or retirement plan
- Bank or investment account

3. Gifts of Real Estate or Property

Support our mission through appreciated property or personal assets.

4. Charitable Trusts and Annuities

Create an income stream for you or your loved ones while supporting our future (consult your financial advisor).

Next Steps

Let us recognize your generosity and share how your gift will make an impact.

1. Let Us Know

If you've already included DCFOF in your plans, we'd love to thank you and welcome you to the Hope Legacy Society.

2. Talk to an Advisor

Discuss your options with an attorney or financial planner to find the right fit for you.

3. Contact Us

We're here to answer your questions and support you.

Heather Norris

hnorris@dcfof.org

(940) 387-5131 x104

Your Benefits

When you include DCFOF in your legacy plans, you:

Qualify for tax savings

Support a mission you believe in

Leave a meaningful impact on future generations

You'll also be recognized as a member of our Hope Legacy Society, a group of visionary supporters committed to long-term safety and healing.

Denton County
Friends of the Family

